RAMSEY CLARK – VOCALIST

Always friendly and ready to start the party Ramsey is a walking jukebox. Having studied voice at Valencia Community College in Orlando, Florida helped him to acquire vocal training needed to enhance his chances at achieving his destiny and dreams to perform and entertain.

With his burning energy and charismatic personality, Ramsey lights up the stage every time and pleases audiences all around the world.

PAMELA - VOCALIST

Get ready or she will make you ready. Having studied different forms of vocal technique from opera, jazz, blues and pop music, her style and diversity allows her to perform on any type of music. Pamela has a vast experience entertaining the crowd. Her musical career exploded once she reached top 80 in Canadian Idol at just 16 years old in 2003. She travelled Canada with corporate bands like La Gioventu and The Funktion to learn how to wow the crowds in the styles of Motown a la Aretha Franklin, Stevie Wonder, Kool and the Gang and top 40. She also is known as a local artist in Canada performing R&B, soul and jazz in upscale venues. Pamela is now ready to share the entertainment adventure with Midnight Class.

KELLY JO – VOCALIST

An R&B/Pop vocalist Kelly Jo was born on the luxurious island of Jamaica in the city of Kingston. Coming from a religious family she received much of her vocal training being part of the church choir. From joining a junior high school choir to enrolling in vocal programs in high school Kelly Jo was able to cultivate her talent. Although he had the opportunity to display her gift at multiple church venues and vocal exhibits, it wasn't enough. After her parents move to Queens, New York she found herself collaborating with various producers and vocal coaches. Her hard work paid off in 2012 where she was invited to perform in Asia 6 night a week. Accompanied with her love for performance and mental fortitude she pushed through and became a well-recognized face on the stage, as well as for her rendition of the songs "Girl On Fire" and "Set Fire To The Rain". Kelly Jo is a wonderful talent to be added to any record label roster or band. She is beautiful, endearing, with a voice that can light up any stage and she has only just begun.

RICK - BASS

He started playing the electric bass when he was only 14 years old. He received his refined certificates of music from the University of Montreal and the University of Sherbrooke. Rick's culmination of experience, skill and humility make him a very sought after addition to any band's collective! However, his intricate melodious techniques are currently employed alongside Midnight Class.

JONATHAN – DRUMS

Coming from a family of drummers, Jonathan or Joa as he is known was exposed to an incredible amount of music. Joa also has a Bachelor Degree in Music obtained in Montreal and was also fortunate and talented enough to graduate at from the prestigious Berkley School of Music in Boston under a World Tour Scholarship.

It is with always a smiling face that you will receive a greeting from Joa, he's the guy that everyone want to hang with. Now being a member and the rhythm for Midnight Class band, now come watch the showmanship of Joa on the drums, he will have you dancing all night.

BEN – GUITAR

A Canadian born guitarist, cellist, compose, producer. At a young age, Ben quickly discovered a passion and his own talents for music. Studying Jazz guitar with New York guitarist Adam Smale and studying cello at the Royal Conservatory of Music, Ben was accepted into Toronto's most renowned arts high school, Etobicoke School of Arts. Ben continued to develop his craft and emerged himself in all kind of music. Soon Ben found himself spending his summers in Boston, Massachusetts attending Berklee College of Music 12 week summer program. After high school, Ben was accepted into the Humber College contemporary music program on a scholarship. Since being at Humber, Ben has performed and written alongside numerous recording artist and most recently with Ed Sheeran at the Much Music Video Awards in Canada. Ben has also studied audio engineering and music production.

JEZ - KEYBOARD

A professional pianist/singer-songwriter/guitarist, hailing from Australia. Jez has been playing acoustic rock/pop/blues/jazz music professionally since the age of 14, starting at a local upscale piano bar. Growing up in a small rural town, Wagga Wagga in country Australia, Jez started playing piano at the early age of 5, studying and successfully gaining graded certificates from preliminary through to 6th grad AMEB. Jez has played in renowned venues across Australia since 2009, Namely the Crown Casino, a number of private cruise ships, Atrium Bar and Tangerine Bar both in Melbourne.

2010 say Jez moved to the United States in New York working as a musician and teacher at a perform arts festival for 7 months. He later moved to London living in Camden playing the local scene for 3 months before being signed to an agency and being offered a contract to play in a trio in Dubai.

Back in Australia in 2011, Jez studied and majored in a Bachelor Arts in Music Performance at the renowned JMC Academy in Melbourne. Completing his diploma in Music Performance and still having the urge to travel and make music, Jez went back to America to work, teaching children ages 7-17 years old of all backgrounds, in music and rock. This had a profound effect on his music, willingness to learn and his strength in music performance grew. Jez has excelled above and beyond his wildest dreams.
