Drawing talented musicians and vocalist from 6 different countries around the world – Italy, Portugal, USA, Canada, Cuba, South Africa – the seven piece international show band VISION makes it a mission to bring to any live stage energy and versatility, performance skills and professionalism.

Whether it be pop, rock, r&b, dance, funk, disco, jazz, blues or Latin, VISION BAND will tailor an entertaining and memorable musical suit for the modern and demanding audience, ranging from soulful ballads to aggressive rock songs to grooving Latin beats to all time classics to current Billboard chart toppers.

VISION BAND was formed in 2013, by the Italian guitar player Claudio Tomasello (aka Doctor C.). Month of searching led to the formation of a group around the core idea that live music should be presented in its most genuine and passionate form while still preserving a high level of musicianship and entertaining skills.

VISION BAND members all gathered around and embraced this central statement in order to contribute to the group's reputation and success.

Madelin is a vocalist from Cuba. She started to sing when she was 7 years old with a professional singer who specializes in teaching children how to sing. She participated in a very important children festival called “Cantandole Al Sol” (Singing to The Sun) where she received an award for most popular song of the festival.

At the age of 19 she was already playing in different bands performing popular Cuban music. She joined a Cuban band called Warapo with whom she started her international career in Vietnam.

After 4 years with that band she decided to become a solo singer and in 2012 she was playing Latin Jazz all around Vietnam. In 2013 she joined a talent agency and she started to tour around Asia and the Middle East with various bands working the 5 star hotel circuit.

Born in Naples, raised in Rome, Claudio brings to the table all the passion and flavor of his Italian heritage although he decided to dedicate his life to music when he was already in his twenties. Faithful to his promise with his parents he went on with his college studies in engineering while exploring the first guitar scales and chords at night.

While still in Italy, he won two scholarships in two consecutive years and granted himself the right to attend the prestigious summer jazz camp “Berklee in Umbria” held by the renowned college of music.

After graduating with honors from Hollywood’s “Musicians Institute” in California he started to play guitar with local artists and working with multiplatinum awarding winning artist Katrina Sirdofsky.

Since 2010 Claudio has been touring non-stop around the top clubs in Asia and Middle East and has to date more than 1000 performance under his belt.

Jacquise “Paris” Herlong was born in Birmingham, Alabama. She attended the Alabama School of Fine Artist where she studied music and dancer. She has performed at The Alabama Jazz Hall of Fame, The Carver Theatre, The Work Play, Verizon Wireless Amphitheatre and other venues.

She has also performed throughout the South East in the United States and Internationally through East Coast Entertainment from weddings, Universities, hotels, special events and major corporate events.

Her musical style is eclectic and there are no limits to her preferences, which range from jazz, R&B, pop, rock to blues. Jacquise aspire to continue to embark upon her love of music in the United States and beyond by connecting to ever evolving business minded musicians. She presently lives in Atlanta, Georgia and has performed in high-energy show bands and as a lead vocalist, background singer, entertainer and dancer as well as duo performances.

Nuno “Alexa” Vilar born in Huambo, Angola has always been surrounded by a natural music environment and the African grooves made him choose the bass guitar as hi “inner voice”, when he started his music studies at age 16, in Portugal and subsequently developed his musical abilities in important schools around Canada and USA, such as the Berklee College of Music in Boston.

Thanks to his easy-going personality and his team-working attitude Nuno has played and performed with several Portuguese acts, such as Veronica Larrene and Click! All around his country, showing great versatility and prominent multitasking skills, being and in-demand bass player for live shows, studio sessions and teaching jobs.

In 2012 he started his international career and has played in numerous 5 star hotels.

Keith Charles De Bruyn is a renowned drummer from Cape Town, South Africa. Keith began playing at age 13 watching the church's drummer play everyone Sunday morning and being fascinated by him so much that he had to drum on everything from pots and pans to his mom's living room furniture, when he was at home.

Not long after, Keith became the official drummer of the youth choir in church and from that point on he made his way to playing with Cape Town's top Gospel Artists, eventually touring the USA with the gospel group Konjalo. Having played for more than 18 years, Keith has performed with almost everyone in Cape Town from Gospel, Jazz, Latin, African and theater production Musicals.

Evens Lamarre was born in Joliette, a city near Montreal, Canada. He grew up in a family of artist and musicians. He spent his childhood drawing and painting, but he picked up guitar at age 15. His newfound interest in music got him to join local punk bands within his first two years of playing. Thereafter he started singing and writing songs.

In college he first chose to pursue fine arts, but after obtaining his degree he felt the need to go back and completed the music program as well where he studying Jazz/pop guitar and classical singing.

Evens eventually became the bass player and backup vocalist for renowned Quebec artist Peter Peter.

His first opportunity playing abroad came with a friend of his asked him to join a Top 40 cover band as the lead singer for a gig in Morocco. He accepted and has never looked back.

Garrison Fletcher Tubbs has a B.M. in Theory and Composition from Centenary College of Louisiana. He started piano lessons at age 4 and vocalist lessons at 7, so he's another lifer!

He started working as a professional musician in early High School; perform his first LLC shortly after graduation. At the age of 19 he was signed to Nightmare Record, distributed by Sony RED.

Gary has received awards for both composition and as a jazz pianist, and is an avid lighting enthusiast, photographer and sometimes opera star! He enjoys long walks on the beach and Skyping with his beautiful girlfriend every chance he gets!
